CFO Annemiek van Melick is leaving a.s.r.

Annemiek van Melick, CFO of a.s.r., is leaving the company to pursue her career at NN Group as CFO. She is resigning her position with immediate effect. a.s.r. intends to announce more details about her succession in the near future.

Jos Baeten, CEO of a.s.r.: 'We would have liked her to complete her term as a member of the Executive Board. Nevertheless, I respect her choice. I am grateful for the valuable contribution she has made over the past period and I wish her every success in her future career'.

Joop Wijn, Chairman of the Supervisory Board of a.s.r.: 'The Supervisory Board thanks Annemiek for her role in further expanding a.s.r.'s financially strong and sustainable position. We wish Annemiek all the best for the future. a.s.r. is well positioned to implement its strategy aimed at long-term value creation with the interests of all stakeholders in mind. Against this background, we intend to propose a suitable successor in the near future.'

Annemiek van Melick: 'I'm leaving today with mixed feelings, as it has been a privilege to work for a.s.r., a professional company with strong cultural roots. a.s.r. is a solid, sustainable insurer, well rooted within society and I would like to thank all colleagues for the pleasant cooperation.'

Annemiek van Melick will not receive any severance pay.

As previously announced, a.s.r. is organising an Investor Update on 7 December 2021. During this event the strategic plans and medium-term objectives will be presented.
