a.s.r. completes acquisition of Bovemij's insurance activities

Today, ASR Nederland N.V. (a.s.r.) and BOVAG announce they have completed the acquisition by a.s.r. of Bovemij's insurance activities. All required approvals from regulators have been obtained, and the relevant works councils have issued a positive advice. All conditions have therefore been met.

a.s.r. and BOVAG announced the intended acquisition and strategic partnership on 8 January 2026. The acquisition comprises the insurance activities of Bovemij, a leading insurer for the mobility sector.

With the completion of the transaction, a.s.r. and BOVAG take an important step in their partnership. As of today, the insurance activities of Bovemij form part of a.s.r. In addition, a.s.r. and BOVAG will establish a joint venture for the distribution activities of Bovemij and ENRA, aimed at further strengthening the services provided to entrepreneurs in the mobility sector. There will be no changes for customers: they can continue to rely on the familiar service and support.

Ingrid de Swart, CEO of a.s.r.: 'The completion of this transaction marks an important milestone for a.s.r. and Bovemij. We welcome a strong organisation with a clear position in the mobility sector. Together, we will continue to build high-quality and future-proof insurance solutions for entrepreneurs in this sector. I would like to thank all teams involved for their efforts in successfully realising this closing. I look forward to working together with the employees of Bovemij.'

Now that the transaction has been completed, a.s.r. will commence the integration of Bovemij's insurance activities. This will be carried out in phases, with due attention to customers, distribution partners and employees.
